Submitted to the Chief Secretary.

I learn that Mr. G. Satyaji Rao Sub-Judge has been appointed 1st Grade Magistrate, Mysore City. Under Standing orders, only 3 posts of that grade would be open to members of the Civil Judicial Service even after the Separation of Judl. & Executive functions in all districts. Even when the Scheme is in operation in only four Districts, they have had the benefit of 3 posts against barely one allowed for the Civil Service. The Civil Service has 4 posts, when the full Scheme is brought into force, and under present conditions can reasonably claim two of the posts. Under the present vacancy which, under Standing orders, the Civil Service had a claim to, has now been conferred on a fourth member of the Judicial Service, who have thereby got even at present one more post than they would otherwise have been ultimately entitled to. My ~~claim~~ prospects in my Service have been worsened to this extent.

Nor is this all. In Dec? 1918, four of my juniors were appointed to the grade of sub-Judge and of 1st grade Magistrates, and my claims were superseded.
My prayer made on that occasion, for a gracious Consideration of my Case has not yet been disposed of.

Thus is the fifth appointment made in Supersession of my claims.

I pray once again therefore that the Govt. may graciously be pleased to Consider my hard Case and grant me most kindly such relief as they deem just and proper.

I beg leave to urge that all these years, I have been employed on responsible and arduous duties under the immediate Control of the Govt. I have been discharging my duties both all the enthusiasm and energy possible, without allowing the hardships above referred to, to affect my Appt-wise there are 4 Judicial Asstts in Civil Service had 3 if not 4.

The number of Appts in the Service Asstt Commr grade is far larger now than what it was when Mr Ramanadhan entered the Service — In 1906 only 5 Appts in the grade of Commr Asstt Commr were created for all the Services including Judicial Commrial posts whereas When the Judicial Cadre was separated, 3 places were created for the purpose and the then existing Civil Service and Ad-judicial Wing were made to 12 places as against (5-3) in 1906. Mr Ramanadhan therefore can have no reasonable cause for complaint. As for rewarding Mr Ramadhan for his work, I have nothing to say against it.
I have found his work very satisfactory and I have found him very willing and obliging in the discharge of his duties.

To

C.S.Balasundaram Iyer, Esqr., B.A.,

Chief Secretary to Government.

S i r,

I beg to submit the following representation for the gracious consideration of Government:-

2. Messrs. D.K.Rama Rao and B.Basavaradhya, both of whom are my juniors, have been appointed 1st class Magistrates on Rs.500-50/2-600 and Mr. G.Srinivasa Iyer, who is also my junior, has been appointed Registrar of the Chief Court. These are among the higher posts open to me as a member of the Civil Service, and I am pained to find that my claims in respect of them have been overlooked.

3. I beg to urge that I was appointed a 1st class Magistrate so long ago as the 8th January 1912 and I trust that I gave every satisfaction to my superiors in the discharge of my duties. I have subsequently been selected for employment in responsible posts in headquarter offices, viz., the Secretariat, the Revenue Commissioner's office and the Dewan's staff. I may be pardoned therefore if I urge that I have better claim to a 1st class Magistrate's post than either of my juniors who have now been appointed.

4. As regards the Subordinate Judgeship, I beg to invite reference of Government to the rules published in the Notification inviting candidates for the Mysore Civil Service Examination, 1908, under which I entered the Civil Service. It will be seen therefrom that Sub Judges were included in the cadre of Assistant Commissioners and the post of District Judges were also open to the Civil Service. The qualifying tests necessary for employment in the Judicial Department ~~were also prescribed for Probationary Assistant Commissioners~~ Department were accordingly prescribed compulsorily in the case of Probationary Assistant Commissioners and a distinct direction - - - embodied in Rule XIII that "every officer recruited by competition shall also be trained in the Judicial Department as a Munsiff or Sub-Judge for not less than one year in the aggregate." Even when the Civil Service Rules were revised in 1913, every alternate vacancy among Sub Judges was declared open to the Civil Service and it was understood that every duly qualified Assistant Commissioner could look forward for such vacancies. No Assistant Commissioner has, however, yet been given the benefit of this rule. Unless this defect in working is remedied, it will result in removing the District Judgeships also from the higher posts open to the Civil Service.

5. The following comparative table of the pay drawn by Assistant Commissioners and certain officers of other departments in 1912 and in 1918 will speak for itself:-

Dept.or Class of Service.	Name.	Salary.		Percentage of increase.
		1-4-12.	17-12-18.

In view of the comparative stagnation thus observable in the promotion of Civil Service Officers, supersessions of the kind brought to notice in this representation are doubly distressing. I pray therefore that the Government may graciously consider all the circumstances of my case and

(i) either appoint me to one of the posts to which my juniors have been selected,

(ii) or appoint me to that grade and second me in it, or

(iii) grant me the same rate of pay until it gets absorbed in the usual course.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

(Sd) A.V.Ramanathan.

23rd December 1918.
